

Image: The Mission and Diakonia Archives | VID

WORKSHOP

RELIGION and EMPIRE

(2nd Edition)

6th - 7th October 2022

Silva Dias Room | Anf. III
Faculty of Arts and Humanities
University of Coimbra

WORKSHOP

RELIGION and EMPIRE (2nd Edition)

Programme

6th October 2022

Silva Dias Room

Session 1: Religion and empire in the early modern period

14.30 – 14.50: José Pedro Paiva (Center for the History of Society and Culture, University of Coimbra)
“Religious differences and imperial pragmatism. The struggle for religious freedom and a privileged law for Muslims and Hindus in Diu (1557-1668)”

14.50 – 15.10: Miguel Rodrigues Lourenço (CHAM, FCSH, NOVA University of Lisbon and Centre of Religious History Studies, Catholic University of Portugal)
“Judging conversion: the trial of Indian religious offences in the Portuguese and Spanish Empires”

15.10 – 15.30: Jairzinho Lopes Pereira (VID Specialized University, Stavanger, and Center for the History of Society and Culture, University of Coimbra)
“Trent postponed: the projects of the foundation of the Diocesan Seminary in Cape Verde (1570-1866)”

15.30 – 16.00: Panel Discussion

16.00 – 16.15: Coffee Break

Session 2: Internationalism(s), imperialism(s) and religious organizations in the twentieth-century I

16.15 – 16.35: Reuben Loffman (Queen Mary University London)
“The Burden of Truth: The American Presbyterian Congo Mission (APCM) and its Struggle with the Congo Free State, 1890-1908”

16.35 – 16.55: Marina Wang (VID Specialized University, Stavanger)
“Negotiating Nationalism and Internationalism in Early Twentieth-Century China: A Case Study of Yu Rizhang”

16.55 – 17.15: Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo (University of Coimbra)
“Social Gospel in Africa (and Geneva): Scrutinizing the Portuguese Colonial Empire in the 1920s”

17.15 – 17.45: Panel Discussion

17.45 – 18.00: Break

Keynote

18.00 – 19.15: Miles Pattenden (Australian Catholic University)
“Roma Caput Mundi: The Early Modern Papacy between religion and imperium”

20.00: Dinner

WORKSHOP

RELIGION and EMPIRE (2nd Edition)

Programme

7th October 2022
Anf. III

Keynote

9.30 – 10h45: Frieder Ludwig (VID Specialized University, Stavanger)

“Formation and concepts of ‘World Lutheranism’ in the Context of International Developments after 1918”

10h45 – 11.00: Coffee Break

Session 3: Internationalism(s), imperialism(s) and religious organizations in the twentieth-century II

11.00 – 11.20: Emily Phuti Mogase (Norwegian Missions Society, Stavanger (via Zoom))

“The Making of a Christian Lady; Cultural Intersections in West African British Colonies – 1890 -1925”

11.20 – 11.40: Hugo Gonçalves Dores (Center for the History of Society and Culture, University of Coimbra)

“A drifting ‘mission’?: Catholic missionary attitudes between universalist expectations and nationalist aspirations in Portuguese colonial Africa”

11.40 – 12.00: Ellen Vea Rosnes (VID Specialized University, Stavanger)

“The failure of the Malagasy education system after independence”

12.00 – 12.30: Panel Discussion

12:30: Conclusion and light lunch

Promoted by

Center for the History of Society and Culture - University of Coimbra
RethinC - VID Specialized University, Stavanger

Organizer and contact information: Hugo Gonçalves Does: hfgdores@gmail.com | +351 968 794 364

With the collaboration and support of:

CHSC

CENTER FOR THE
HISTORY OF SOCIETY
AND CULTURE

VID

Queen Mary
University of London

12 90

FACULDADE DE LETRAS
UNIVERSIDADE D
COIMBRA

FCT Fundação
para a Ciência
e a Tecnologia

 REPÚBLICA
PORTUGUESA

UIDB/00311/2020