

Image: The Mission and Diakonia Archives | VID

WORKSHOP

RELIGION and EMPIRE

(3rd Edition)

25th - 26th May 2023

Room 247K
VID Specialized University
Stavanger

WORKSHOP

RELIGION and EMPIRE (3rd Edition)

Programme

25th May 2023

Room 247K

Session I (9.30 - 10.30)

Joar Haga (VID Specialized University, Stavanger)

"Conceptual-historical qualification of empire in the early modern period"

José Pedro Paiva (Center for the History of Society and Culture, University of Coimbra)

"Mutual support: Crown uses of religion and Catholic Church agents in Portuguese Asia (1595-1640)"

Coffee Break (10:30 - 10:45)

Session II (10:45 - 12:15)

Jaime Gouveia (Center for the History of Society and Culture, University of Coimbra)

"The Confederation between Portugal and the Kingdoms of Kongo and Angola (1511-1665)"

Jairzinho Lopes Pereira (VID Specialized University, Stavanger, and Center for the History of Society and Culture, University of Coimbra)

"Trent postponed: the projects of the foundation of the Diocesan Seminary in Cape Verde (1570-1866)"

Lunch (12:30 - 13:30)

Session III (13:30 - 15:30)

Marina Wang (VID Specialized University, Stavanger)

"British Empire, Chinese Nationalism, and Protestant Mission Schools. A loyalty dilemma faced by the Tientsin Anglo-Chinese College (1925-1930)"

Ellen Vea Rosnes (VID Specialized University, Stavanger) and Yvette Derason (Toliara University)

"Lutheran Education in the South-Western region of Madagascar during the 1920s to 1950s"

Hugo Gonçalves Dores (Center for the History of Society and Culture, University of Coimbra)

"'Elevating the spirit' in the Empire: Education and religion and the sign of development in Portuguese Africa (1940s-1960s)"

WORKSHOP

RELIGION and EMPIRE (3rd Edition)

Programme

26th May 2023
Room 247K

Session IV (9:30 - 11:00)

Reuben Loffman (Queen Mary University London)

"A 'White Licenciante... willing to work': Ideas of race, paternalism, and uplift and the founding of the American Presbyterian Congo Mission, 1865-1890"

Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo (University of Coimbra)

"The authentication of indignation: Photography and the 'civilized savagery' of the Portuguese colonial empire"

Kirsten Ruther (University of Vienna)

"Under construction. Towards a project on 'Religion and Empire' in Missionary Photography"

Coffee break (11:00 - 11:15)

Session V (11:15 - 12:45)

Retief Muller (VID Specialized University, Stavanger)

"Dutch Reformed Theology in the late British Empire – before, during, and after the South African War"

Ana Filipa Guardiola (University of Florence)

"Between idealism and pragmatism: the Christian churches' humanitarian aid to Biafra in and from colonial São Tomé (1967-1970)"

Frieder Ludwig (VID Specialized University, Stavanger)

"South-North" and "East-West" in the historiography of the Ecumenical Movement, 1957-1972: De-colonial and cold-war perspectives on Religion & Empire"

Lunch (12:45 - 13:45)

Concluding Session (14:00 - 16:00)

Discussion about future cooperation & joint project applications

Promoted by:

RethinC - VID Specialized University, Stavanger

Center for the History of Society and Culture - University of Coimbra

Research Project «"Connected Histories - Contested Values": World Lutheranism and Decolonisation. Processes of Transloyalties, 1919-1970 (CHCV)»

Organizer and contact information: Frieder Ludwig; frieder.ludwig@vid.no | 0047-9229-1995

With the collaboration and support of:

CHSC

CENTER FOR THE
HISTORY OF SOCIETY
AND CULTURE

FACULDADE DE LETRAS
UNIVERSIDADE DE
COIMBRA

